ABOUT THE PARTY

The “Relax, Reset, Restore: Pajamas & Purpose Party” is an inspirational-based, all-female year-end gathering designed to cultivate rest, realignment, and renewal. This intimate evening includes guided sessions on physical health, mental wellness, and spiritual reflection, while also setting intentional goals for 2026. Held in the vibrant Museum Park area, the atmosphere promotes sisterhood, self-care, and soulful dialogue.

ABOUT

RELAX | RESET | RESTORE

The Relax, Reset, Restore initiative empowers women who selflessly support others by offering a holistic, faith-centered sanctuary for spiritual renewal, as well as mental and physical well-being, and personal growth.

Program Features:

- Retreats
- Virtual meetups
- Weekly GroupMe connectivity
- Restorative activities
- Community of like-minded women

In this program, participants are encouraged to embrace rest, rejuvenation, and self-care as vital elements of their journey, all while supporting faith-based processes.

ABOUT THE HOST

Krystal Shanell is truly multifaceted, effortlessly stepping into various roles and embracing many responsibilities. Renowned for her business expertise and nonprofit background, she dedicates herself to both her clients and the community by skillfully managing her companies and helping others to launch, expand, and secure funding. As a certified John Maxwell Coach, she specializes in personal leadership development. In addition, Krystal is a dynamic speaker, a successful author, and a serial entrepreneur, serving as the Administrative Director for The Relief Gang. She also holds the position of Business Manager for both rappers Trae Tha Truth and Tokyo Jetz.

▶▶ Personally

In her personal life, Krystal is a mother of five who enjoys reading and cherishing moments with her friends during her free time.

OUR SPEAKERS HIGHLIGHT

We are highlighting business, mental health, physical wellness, and faith principals. Our speakers are experts in their field and will give participants a wealth of information to prepare them to be their best selves in 2026. More information will be presented when the event flyer goes out June 9th.
